The WOMAN'S CLUB
of
WINSTON-SALEM

*Here's to the land of the Longleaf Pine,
The Summer Land where the sun doth shine;
Where the weak grow strong and the strong

Here's to Down Home, the Old North State.*

HISTORY

APRIL the 25th 1919, fifteen ladies representing a number of clubs and organizations of the city, met with Miss Adelaide Fries to discuss with Mrs. Clarence Johnson, President of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, the organization of a Woman's Club in Winston-Salem. Led on by the enthusiasm gathered at this meeting, a second and larger gathering took place on April 29, at the home of Mrs. H. L. Riggins, at which time it was decided to call a mass meeting for May 7, 1919.

One hundred and seventy five women in answer to the call, met in the Board of Trade rooms and the Woman's Club of Winston-Salem was organized with Mrs. H. E. Rondthaler as President; Mrs. H. L. Riggins, First Vice-President; Mrs. Burton Craig, Second Vice-President; Miss Ruth M. Reed, Recording Secretary; Miss Margaret Blair, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. J. L. Graham, Treasurer. These officers, together with the heads of the departments and the chairmen of the standing committees formed a governing board known as the Board of Directors.

Owing to the fact that entrance to one or more departments of the Club is optional, there has been much enthusiasm shown in the work and much good accomplished.

The Young Women's Christian Association very kindly offered the Club the use of their rooms until a home could be secured. But the fact that the membership has grown from one hundred and seventy five to three hundred and eighty makes the Club feel keenly the need of a home and much work is being done to make this Club Home possible.

REPORT OF RETIRING PRESIDENT

March 2, 1921

The second year of activity of our Woman's Club in Winston-Salem is closing today. Most unexpectedly this year has brought us the privilege and responsibility of citizenship, and has changed in many ways the aspect of woman's work in our old conservative North Carolina.

In making my report to you, it is with great satisfaction that I am able to say to you that the Woman's Club has established itself as a necessary part of our community in this second year of its service.

The constant and increasing demand for our co-operation in matters of civic, philanthropic, and social interest in the city stands as a proof to us that we are needed, and if we are needed, we are here to stay.

We have today on our list 321 members, and I am happy to say that this membership still maintains its original democracy of representation, a widely varied group of all the women in Winston-Salem.

The several departments of the club have offered a varied outlet for the activities of women with different talents and ability, and more women than was the case last year have placed themselves into departmental work.

The Woman's Club has been in touch with the following movements in our city and in the State:

The campaign against the mashers on our city streets.

The supplying of workers for our city playgrounds in the summer.

A spring flower show and plant exchange.

Story tellers and music for the Children's Hour at the library.

Contributions to the new school for social service training at the University.

An economy campaign to promote thrift and lower prices.

An extra nurse for the children's ward at the hospital.

The U. S. Training Camp for Women at Asheville.

The equal suffrage fight for ratification.

Survey of homes in the city for incoming teachers.

The investigation of the moral status of the side-shows at the county fair.

Tag day for books for the Carnegie library.

A course in citizenship for women. Instruction of women voters and registration of women.

The raising of $1,000 for the memorial to our departed soldiers.

A movement to beautify our city by the abundant planting of crepe myrtle.

Campaign for good pictures and good books for our county school rooms.

The Red Cross drive.

The sale of Christmas seals.

Petitions for good roads.

The State movie censorship bill.

The educational bill for $20,000,000.

The Clement bill to introduce the Australian ballot.

Co-operation for better gas.

The community Christmas tree.

Relief for the starving children of Europe.

Relief for the starving people of China.

The probation officer problem in both city and county.

The proper equipment for the tubercular hospital and county home.

The late effort to plant and keep green the courthouse square.

The milk campaign and the health campaign.

The self-cultural side of club life has been stimulated by the literature study classes, the music study classes, the art study course, and the practical training in dress-making and millinery offered by the Home Economics department.

Socially there have been several delightful occasions, the reception to the new city teachers, the get-together luncheon, the silver tea and art exhibit, and the mid-winter reception at which we entertained our men guests in the hospitable home of Dr. Fred M. Hanes and Mrs. Hanes.

A great deal of quite steady work has been done by all departments along the lines mentioned in their individual reports. Much community service work has been rendered by the social service and civic departments and health department.

Especial mention should be made of the splendid flag-staff and memorial for our boys who gave their lives in the great struggle, which will be completed this spring under the direction of the art department of the club and the American Legion.

The course in citizenship put on by the social service department has brought interesting and worth-while speakers to address the club:

Hon. A. F. Sams, our State Senator.

Miss Harriet Elliott, head of civics at the State College for Women.

Mr. A. H. Eller, well-known local attorney.

Mr. D. Hiden Ramsey, Commissioner of Public Safety of Asheville.

Mr. E. C. Lindaman, head of sociology at the State College for Women.

Dr. W. C. Smith, professor of English at the State College for Women, who addressed us delightfully on the interpretation of Browning under the auspices of the literature department.

This year has seen untiring efforts put forth by the housing and finance committees towards the securing of a home for the club, but the scarcity of suitable and available properties combined with high prices has brought us to the termination of our second year very much wiser and humbler than we were last year, but with an undaunted courage and much stronger determination to work for a Woman's Club building. Each department pledged itself to make an effort to raise money for the building fund. Four of the departments have fulfilled this obligation.

We are more grateful than ever to the Y. W. C. A. for its cordial hospitality, and co-operation of its secretaries in making it a delightful temporary headquarters for us.

There are still many women in the club who have not as yet learned the value of working along with the departments. Again there are many who are spending themselves in two or three departments. This is entirely optional with the individual, but we need workers, for there are problems in our community today, which can only be solved through the wise and persistent efforts of our women.

One of the most eminent of these is the cleanliness of our city, a cleanliness which shall be real and lasting and evident, and that will be remarked upon by every stranger who sets foot in Winston-Salem. Close following on this is the City Beautiful movement, which goes many steps further than cleanliness, but which can only be built upon cleanliness.

We must have a park—a really lovely park, with plenty of green grass and trees and flowers and running water where children and grown-ups can go and be happy—not a barren briary patch of land with bowling-alley, a dirty pavilion, a soft drink stand, strewn with bottles and papers and tin cans—the most unlovely conception of a park that ever mankind designed.

I would urge upon you the formation of a strong civic department in the club—for it is most important that we as women should learn to take an intelligent interest in and give understanding co-operation in civic and legislative affairs.

The time has also arrived when the colored women of our town should have our wise and patient help in aiding them to work out their own race problems. I am especially desirous of pointing out this new line of work to you. Possibly the kindly understanding which is necessary for the solution of all race problems can best be brought about through the women of both races. There is a duty here which we dare not avoid.

The Club has in many ways brought us all into closer fellowship and has taught us to work together and confer together in a spirit of openness and fairness about matters of public good.

KATHERINE B. RONDTHALER.

NOTES OF INTEREST

DR. W. C. SMITH, Professor of English at the State College for Women gave a charming lecture on the interpretation of Browning. National officers of the Daughters of the American Revolution who were spending the day in the City, were guests of the Club on this occasion.

THE "SCHOOL OF CITIZENSHIP", under the auspices of the Civic Department proved one of the greatest works of the Club year. Noted speakers were here on different occasions and much enthusiasm was developed along civic lines.

THE ART DEPARTMENT, by means of "Tag Day" raised over a thousand dollars in one day last winter. The money was used to buy the bronze tablet for the Memorial which has been placed on Court House Square in honor of Forsyth's fallen heroes in the late war.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE STATE FEDERATION, Mrs. Charles C. Hook of Charlotte, spent a few days in Winston-Salem the guest of our Club President, Mrs. Frederick Fries Bahnson. Several social courtesies were shown

Mrs. Hook, and she was present at our regular April meeting and made a delightful talk.

THE DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE AND EDUCATION branched out into County work and placed over one hundred pictures in the schools, and started a circulating library among the mothers.

THE FLOWER SHOW has become an annual event which is eagerly looked forward to. This year, several subscription card parties were given, the money going towards the building fund.

AT THE STATE FEDERATION MEETING, Winston-Salem Club Members were given signal honors: Mrs. John Gilmer was made Second Vice-President; Mrs. H. E. Rondthaler, Chairman of Education; Mrs. A. S. Kennickell, Jr., Chairman of Music; Miss Adelaide Fries was made a member of the Board of Directors of the National Federation. Mrs. W. T. Carter is already a State Officer; Mrs. Grady Marler is District Chairman and Mrs. J. L. Graham's term as State Chairman of Art expired at this meeting.

IT IS INTERESTING TO NOTE that many of our members are also officers in other organizations. Mrs. W. N. Reynolds is Chairman of the International Relations Committee.

MRS. J. EDWARD JOHNSTON was one of the appointees to serve on the Commission to examine the Mint.

MRS. W. O. SPENCER is State Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

MRS. PETER GORRELL is State Vice-President of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

MRS. LINDSAY PATTERSON has been made an honorary member of the Kola Sestara of Jugo Slovakia. This is a Woman's Order and is bestowed upon Mrs. Patterson in recognition of her work among the women of that country.

IN ITS BRIEF EXISTENCE, the Woman's Club has accomplished worth while things. In every department its influence has been potent and the city has come to feel that it has made good. The representative women who compose this club are "dreaming a dream" of their own commodious home in the future—a comfortable, well equipped building which will be a community center for much that is helpful; a place to meet and perfect plans in friendly co-operation; to hear good music and good lectures; to discuss political issues that women are interested in; to hear talks on good pictures, on health; to meet in a social way "over the tea cups"; to entertain visiting celebrities; to bring brightness into our community by making our city the cleanest healthiest and most beautiful in all the State.

Shall we not all work harder than ever to bring about the realization of such a home as this?
